

Ingenico Group appointed Kaitlin Ambrogio as Corporate Communications Manager in North America

Communications professional Kaitlin Ambrogio joined Ingenico Group, (Euronext: FR0000125346 - ING), global leader in seamless payment, as Corporate Communications Manager. She reports to Catherine Blanchet VP of Investor Relations and Corporate Communications.

To support the Group's business and corporate visibility in North America, Ambrogio brings her experience as a strategic communications professional and recognized expert in media relations in a variety of ecommerce and technology companies.

Most recently, Ambrogio represented global ecommerce company, Vistaprint. There Ambrogio focused on increasing brand awareness and delivering key messages that built customer loyalty and supported sales goals. Kaitlin also worked for TomTom and at the public relations agency Schwartz Communications.

Based in Boston, Massachusetts, Ambrogio will oversee the strategic direction and implementation of the corporate communication strategy and framework for the North American region. Focused on external communications activities, Ambrogio will build awareness and visibility for Ingenico Group by positioning and promoting the group's seamless payment brands, services, products and solutions.

Ambrogio holds a BS in Communications from Boston University and an MS in Communications from Northeastern University.

All requests for interviews, press releases and media inquiries should be directed to Ambrogio.
