

PRESS RELEASE

Ingenico acquires Payzone France, a leading prepaid operator

Neuilly sur Seine – May 5 2010. Ingenico (Euronext: FR0000125346 - ING), the leading worldwide provider of payment solutions, today announces that it has completed the acquisition of Payzone France from an investment company based in Luxemburg. The terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

Founded in 2001, Payzone France is based in Colombelles and Paris, France. It manages a unique retailer base of 17.000 point of sales (including more than 6.500 terminals) and is a mobile topup distributor for all French Mobile Network Operators. Through its platform, it is able to offer mobile topup as well as a number of other value added services such as money transfer or music download.

Philippe Lazare, CEO Ingenico, commented: “This transaction demonstrates our willingness to develop our beyond-payment transaction processing business through a comprehensive value added service offering for merchants. It brings Ingenico a unique distribution network across the large French retailers. We have already identified a number of existing cross-selling opportunities with our existing service portfolio.”
